General Terms and Conditions of mysecurityevent GmbH, as of September 9th, 2022

1 Scope

The following general terms and conditions apply to all contracts of mysecurityevent GmbH, located at Scharnhorststr. 3c, 10115 Berlin with the contractual partner who takes part in the events and uses the products of mysecurityevent GmbH.

2 Conclusion of the contract

2.1 The contractual partner submits a binding and irrevocable offer for the conclusion of the contract by sending the registration by fax, post, e-mail or via the websites of mysecurityevent GmbH.

2.2 Each contract with mysecurityevent GmbH is only concluded when it has been confirmed in writing by mysecurityevent GmbH.

2.3 The offer of mysecurityevent GmbH is only aimed at business customers according to §14 BGB, the prices are therefore exclusive of VAT.

2.4 If the contractual partner is a provider of advice, services and/or solutions and has registered as a participant instead of as a sponsor, mysecurityevent GmbH will withhold payment.

3 Scope of Contract and Execution of Services

3.1 mysecurityevent GmbH provides face-to-face events and can change the location, time, program and individual parts of an event; there is then no entitlement to a reduction or reimbursement of the admission price. mysecurityevent GmbH is not liable for the cancellation, change or postponement of an event due to force majeure. This also applies to official orders.

3.2 mysecurityevent GmbH is not responsible for the content of exhibitors and speakers.

3.3 mysecurityevent GmbH reserves all rights to image and sound. The contractual partner agrees to image, video and sound recordings and other recordings and their free use. These records are also permitted by the contractual partner.

4 Terms of Payment

4.1 The contractual partner of mysecurityevent GmbH has the obligation to perform in advance and must make the payment within 10 working days from the booking date immediately after invoicing without any deductions, unless another payment term has been expressly agreed.

4.2 If individual services are not fully used by the contractual partner through no fault of mysecurityevent GmbH, the agreed fees are still due, unless otherwise agreed.

5 Contract Amendments, Withdrawal of Contracts

5.1 Only the person who is named as a participant on the contract is entitled to participate, a transfer of this right to participate is not possible unless something else has been expressly agreed with mysecurityevent GmbH.

5.2 mysecurityevent GmbH grants the contractual partner the right to cancel the registration for an event of mysecurityevent GmbH under the following conditions: The contractual partner can cancel its contract in writing with a notice period of up to four weeks before the first day of the event and will receive a voucher for the next event. The receipt of the declaration is decisive for this four-week period.

6 Liability

mysecurityevent GmbH is not liable for damage and replacement, cancellation, change or postponement of an event due to force majeure, technical faults, war, terror, natural disasters, political restrictions, official orders, traffic restrictions or other unforeseen events.

7 Jurisdiction

The place of jurisdiction is the district court of Berlin if the contractual partner is a merchant or a legal entity under public law or has its general place of jurisdiction abroad.

Data protection declaration mysecurityevent GmbH, as of September 9th, 2022 mysecurityevent GmbH, as the operator of these pages, conscientiously protects your personal data. Your personal data will be treated confidentially, in accordance with the statutory data protection regulations and this data protection declaration. Our website can usually be used without providing personal data. If personal data (e.g. name, telephone number, address or e-mail addresses) is collected on our website, this is always done on a voluntary basis as far as possible. mysecurityevent GmbH points out that data transmission on the Internet (e.g. registration form, communication by e-mail) can have security gaps. A complete protection of the data against access by third parties is not possible.

Data collection

The data will be used by mysecurityevent GmbH to process and network the event and will be treated confidentially in accordance with data protection regulations.

The information collected includes the following data: name, job title, company name, address, telephone number, fax number, email address, topics. mysecurityevent GmbH is the sole owner of this collected information.

Contact form

If you send inquiries to mysecurityevent GmbH via the contact form, your details from the inquiry form, including the data you provided there, will be stored at mysecurityevent GmbH for processing the inquiry, organizing the products, networking through the products and for follow-up questions.

Newsletter

If you receive the newsletter offered on the mysecurityevent GmbH website, mysecurityevent GmbH needs your email address and information that allows mysecurityevent GmbH to verify that you are the owner of the email address provided and that you agree to receive the newsletter. You can revoke your consent to the storage of the data, the email address and their use for sending the newsletter at any time, e.g. via the link in the newsletter.

Posts & Comments

If users leave comments or other contributions, their IP addresses can be processed on the basis of our legitimate interests within the meaning of Art. 6

In addition to your comment, the time the comment was created, the IP address, the email address and the selected user name are also saved. Since comments are not checked before they are activated, this data is necessary in order to be able to take action against the author in the event of legal violations (e.g. propaganda, insults).

Your data for networking and organizing the event mysecurityevent GmbH has the right to pass on your data to the other companies involved in an event in which you are or have participated in order to enable the organization of the event and subsequent networking. If you want to be deleted from our mailing list and object to this according to Art. 21 GDPR, please do so to the data protection officer Mario.Kostka@mysecurityevent.de.

Links to Other Sites

The websites of mysecurityevent GmbH contain links to other websites for whose data protection regulations mysecurityevent GmbH is not responsible. This confidentiality statement only applies to the information collected by mysecurityevent GmbH.

GDPR rights

There is also the right to erasure under Article 17, data portability under Article 20 and the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority under Article 77.

Cookies and log files

The websites of mysecurityevent GmbH automatically collect information: IP address, search routine, operating system, access times, connected websites and browsers. This data is used to improve the services.
